

FACULTY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT
UGC Lr. No. F.6-4 / 2013 (SCT) dtd. 29 Aug.2013

Specific Regulations for the Faculty of Social Justice and Empowerment

172.0 Short title and Commencement

The faculty of Social Justice and Empowerment is created in Dr.MGR Educational and Research Institute, Deemed University, on the direction of the University Grants Commission.

172.1 This faculty of Social Justice and Empowerment consists of the following Research Departments.

- i) Department of Disability Studies.
- ii) Department of Women Empowerment
- iii) Department of Human Rights
- iv) Department of Social Justice

172.2 These regulations shall be called "Specific Regulations for the above mentioned departments of the faculty of Social Justice and Empowerment".

173.0 AIM AND OBJECTIVES

The aim and objectives of the above mentioned four Research departments of the faculty of Social Justice and Empowerment are:-

1. Identification of the Public Employment Opportunities for the persons with disabilities.
2. Identification of avenues of Self Employment for the persons with disabilities and for women.
3. Identification of avenues for the establishment of the status of women.
4. Identification of the ways to create awareness among the persons with disabilities and women about their rights and the various Social Welfare Policies of the State and Central Governments.
5. To expose, the various Social legislations for the development of persons with disabilities and women.
6. Identification of various means for the Social, Economical and Political Development of persons with disabilities and women.

174.0 M.S and Ph.D. Programmes

As research in the above mentioned four departments lead to M.S. degree or Ph.D. degree, the regulations mentioned for M.S. and Ph.D. Programmes under Part VIII are applicable for the faculty of Social Justice and Empowerment also (Ref. regulations 175 to 198).