REPORT

TITLE

Subject Lecture on "Image Compression "

CONTENT

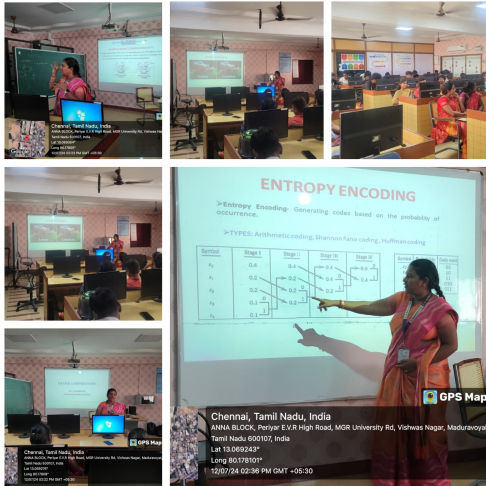

The Department of ECE and ECOMET Association successfully organized a Subject Lecture on "Image Compression" on 12th July 2024, held at the VLSI Lab, Anna Block, specifically for the final year students of ECE. Dr. S. Elakkiya, Assistant Professor in the Department of ECE, was the speaker for this event. During her presentation, she provided an in-depth understanding of image compression techniques, highlighting both lossy and lossless methods and their relevance in various applications. She also delved into future trends and innovations in the field, which provided valuable insights to the students. The interactive nature of the session allowed students to engage actively and broaden their knowledge in image processing. The event was meticulously organized and coordinated by Dr. G. Kavitha, AP/ECE, with guidance from Dr. U. Jayalathsumi, HOD/ECE. The Department expresses sincere gratitude to the Honorable President for his unwavering support and to all Executives for their encouragement, which greatly contributed to the success of the event.
