Report: Guest Lecture on Power of Soft Skills

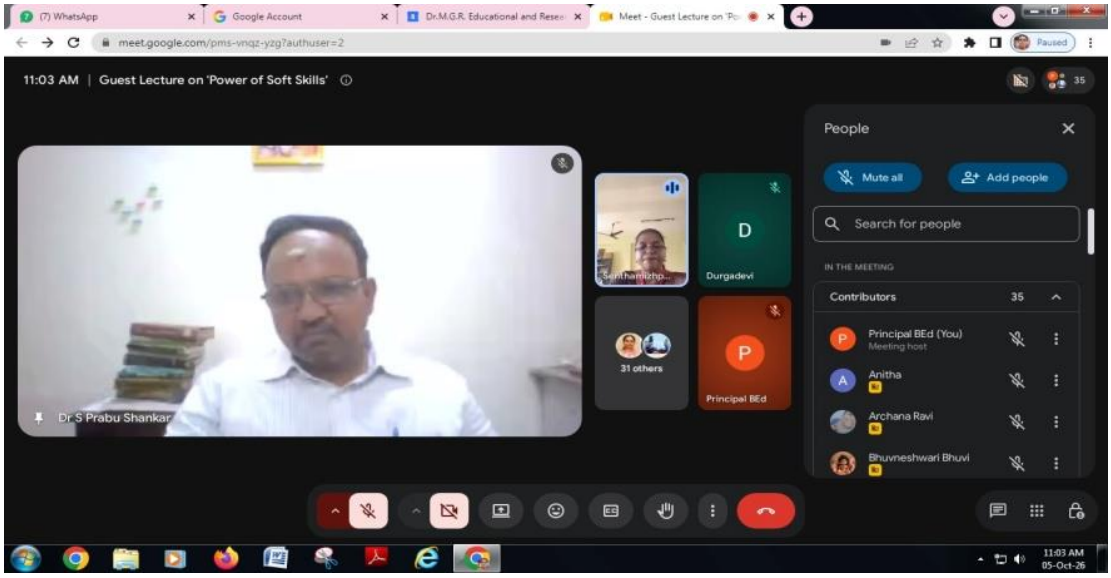

The Faculty of Education (B.Ed.) organized a Guest Lecture on "POWER OF SOFT SKILLS (Employability Skills for Teacher Effectiveness)" on 5/10/2026 at 10:30 a.m. online via Google Meet.

The session was delivered by Dr. S. Prabu Shankar, Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Education, Institute of Advanced Study in Education, Chennai-15, with the objective of enhancing the knowledge and awareness of B.Ed. students regarding the critical role of soft skills and employability skills in teaching effectiveness.

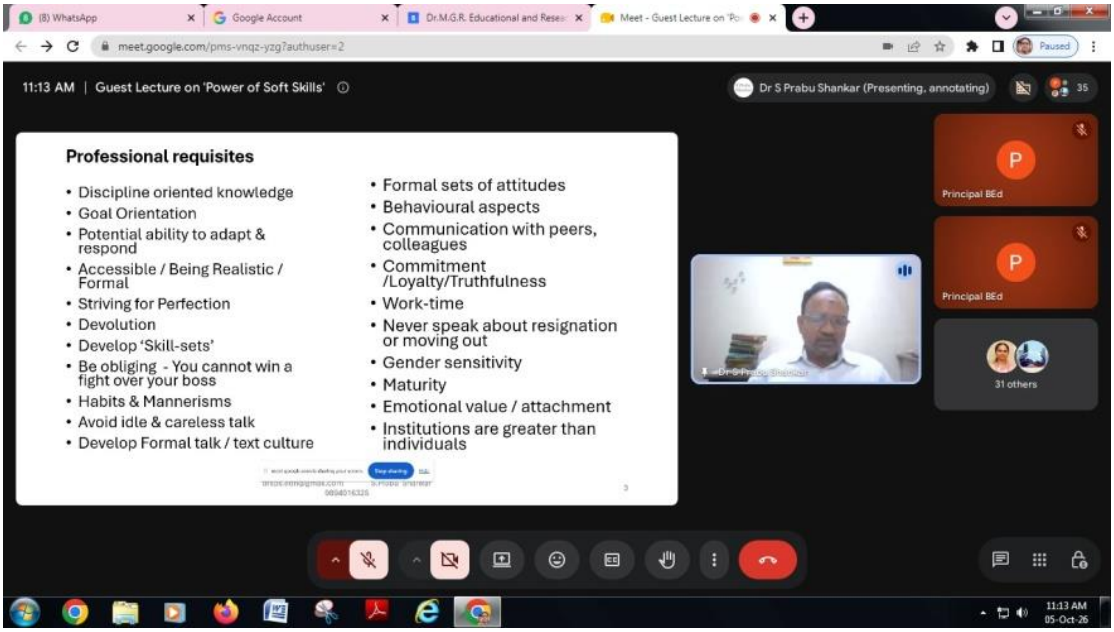

He explained the core concepts and importance of soft skills in modern educational settings, highlighting communication, interpersonal skills, adaptability, and professional etiquette. He emphasized the importance of teacher effectiveness, classroom management, and developing strong rapport with students to create a positive learning environment.

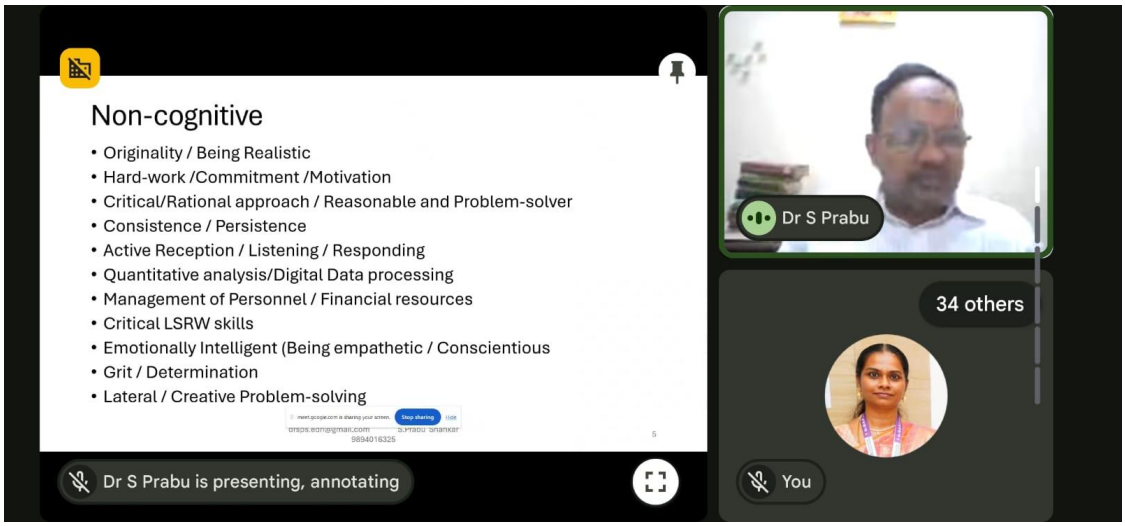

The lecture also highlighted practical strategies for employability, emotional intelligence, and classroom accommodations necessary for professional development. The interactive session enabled the B.Ed. students to gain practical insights into applying soft skills to enhance their teaching practice and career readiness. Overall, the lecture enhanced the participants' understanding of teacher effectiveness and strengthened their preparedness to excel in future classrooms.
